

MORRISON, M.P.

6th November, 1980

Thank you so much for having looked after me so splendidly last evening.

You gave me ideas above my station.

Only one thing disturbed me about our talk and that was your assessment of how some of our colleagues regard one another. I can only say that I have never come across attitudes of the kind which you described.

Thank you again for your very kind, welcome, and for having looked after me so well.

Ian Gow

The Hon. Charles Morrison, M.P.
