

PRIME MINISTER

THE WEEK AHEAD

South Africa remains the leading topic with your EuroCouncil statement tomorrow: Lords debate (Friday). The South African Ambassador gives evidence to the Foreign Affairs Select Committee today.

The UK takes over the presidency of the European Community on Tuesday.

Other events of note are:

- the visit of West German president (from Tuesday)
- NUM conference (all week)
- electricity prices fall 3.5% (Tuesday)
- Peacock report published (Thursday)
- Japanese General Election (Sunday)

On Thursday the Henley Royal Regatta opens and the England v. India Third Test starts.

INTERNATIONAL

- Polish Communist Party congress (from today)
- US deadline for American companies to leave Libya (today)
- Caricom Summit, Guyana (to Friday)
- Anglo-Spanish extradition treaty comes into force (Tuesday)
- Japanese General Election (Sunday)

EUROPEAN COMMUNITY

- Eureka conference - you open (today)
- Councils: Transport - air transport liberalisation (today)
- Foreign Secretary addresses Foreign Press Association on UK presidency (Wednesday)
- Economic and Social Committee, Brussels (Wednesday and Thursday)

PARLIAMENT

- Commons debates: Defence (today and Tuesday); 3rd Reading EC Bill (Tuesday); Social Security regulations (Wednesday)
- First for Questions: Wales (today); DHSS (Tuesday); Scotland (Wednesday); Northern Ireland (Thursday)
- Select Committees: Foreign Affairs - South African Ambassador (today)
- Lords debates: South Africa (Friday)

ECONOMIC INDICATORS

- Wednesday: UK reserves (June); travel and tourism (April)
- Thursday: housing starts and completions (May)
- Friday: car and vehicle production (May)

INDUSTRY

- Industry Year Conference, with Harvey Jones, Plastow and Norman Willis (TUC) (Wednesday)
- Union conferences: NUM /NUT ; Irish Congress of Trade Unions (all week); Society of Education Officers (Friday)
- NUR/CSEU ballot on strike over workshop closures (today)
- Job restart programme goes nationwide (Tuesday)
- Domestic electricity prices fall 3.5% (Tuesday)
- Royal Agricultural Show, Stoneleigh (to Thursday) - visit of Russian Minister (compensation for Chernobyl) Tuesday
- British Institute of Energy Economics conference on future of North Sea oil and gas (Tuesday)
- British Technology bus in Downing Street (Wednesday)
- NEDC (Wednesday)
- CPSA meets on air traffic controller job cuts (Wednesday)

CONFIDENTIAL

2.

PAY NEGOTIATIONS

- Tuesday: NHS ancillary workers.

ANNOUNCEMENTS/STATEMENTS

- Statement on EuroCouncil - Prime Minister (Tuesday)
- ?£50m computer contract to B/Telecom from DHSS
- Education Committee report on DES spending plans (Tuesday)
- D/Employment report "Working Together" on education and training (Wednesday)

HEALTH/WELFARE

- BMA, Health Education Council and TUC conference on NHS (Friday)
- British Dental Association manual conference (next weekend)

MINISTERS

- Kenneth Baker visits West Midlands (Tuesday); Cumbria (Friday)
- Lord Young presents Free Enterprise Awards (Tuesday)
- Foreign Secretary addresses Greater London Conservative Association Political Centre (Wednesday)
- Paul Channon visits Institute of Directors (Wednesday)
- Defence Secretary attends City presentation on defence procurement (Friday)
- Kenneth Clarke visits MSC, Sheffield (Friday)
- Home Secretary visits Bristol (Friday)

MEDIA

- Peacock Report published - and Home Secretary statement (Thursday)
- EC conference on future of TV in Community, London (Wednesday and Thursday)
- BBC TV 1 'Panorama', tonight, on airport security (with Michael Spicer)
- ITV 'First Tuesday', Tuesday, investigates IRA Guildford and Woolwich bombings - miscarriage of justice
- BBC Radio 4, 'Any Questions?', Friday, with Cecil Parkinson, Mary Goldring, Rodney Bickerstaffe, Dr Anthony Clare

PREVIEW OF NEXT WEEK

MONDAY:

EuroParliament (all week)
ECOFIN
Mitterrand visits Soviet Union (Monday-Thursday)
Foreign Secretary gives evidence to Foreign Affairs Select Committee on South Africa
Credit business (May)

TUESDAY:

The Queen marks BOTB bi-centenary
You meet Secretary General of Arab League
Waldheim inaugurated as Austrian President
Foreign Secretary presents UK presidency programme to EuroParliament
EC Budget meeting
Local Authority Chief Executives annual conference (to Friday)
Welsh Eisteddford opens (to Sunday)
Money supply (June)
Home Secretary addresses National Council for Voluntary Organisations

WEDNESDAY:

You meet Commonwealth Secretary General
NEDC
Local authority white collar workers pay negotiations

THURSDAY:

You test drive new Rover 800
Royal Institute of British Architects annual conference (Nicholas Ridley speaks)
Vehicle production (June)
ACARD report on medical equipment
Annual report, Data Protection Registrar

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

3.

FRIDAY:

You open Broadgate; depart for Vancouver
Index of retail prices (June)
Building Societies monthly figures (June)
Steel production (June)

BERNARD INGHAM

CONFIDENTIAL